WEATHER KEY POINTS

10/06/21 - 10/12/21

Wednesday-Tuesday

- Gusty winds will persist into Wednesday along and east of the Sierra though humidity levels will be higher
  - Areas of elevated fire weather conditions persist in central and southern mountains with continued dry conditions and locally gusty winds.
- Much cooler temperatures arrive for mid and late week and into the weekend
- Occasional mainly light showers are also expected through late week, especially across the Sierra and over coastal southern California, with rainfall amounts mainly one-quarter of an inch or less. Some high elevation light snow is also possible over the Sierra, especially Friday.
- Another round of active weather is possible next week, though confidence in timing and potential impacts is low at this time.
  - Gusty north winds are possible across northern California early next week, and could lead to elevated fire weather concerns, though details are still uncertain
